Art Unit: 3723

1. Claims 10 and 24-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 10, line 15, antecedent basis for "said adjacent surfaces" is not understood since applicant has previously defined a first notch comprising adjacent surfaces and a second notch comprising adjacent surfaces.

In claim 24, "said at least one of said notches" lacks antecedent basis.

Claim 25 is vague and indefinite since the recitation of "said jaws being free of protruding teeth..." is misdescriptive in view of the specification and drawings. The ends of the tool jaws do form teeth.

2. Claim 24 is objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c), as being of improper dependent form for failing to further limit the subject matter of a previous claim. Applicant is required to cancel the claim(s), or amend the claim(s) to place the claim(s) in proper dependent form.

Claim 24 fails to further limit claim 10 on which it depends.

3. Claims 25 and 28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

In claim 25, "said jaws being free of protruding teeth..." is not supported by the original disclosure and also appears to be misdescriptive since the ends of the jaws appear to disclose teeth.

In claim 28, the notches being "outwardly disposed" and the jaws being "free of inwardly disposed protrusions..." is not supported by the original disclosure.

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

Art Unit: 3723

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 10 and 24-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Nation (1,782,364).

Nation discloses the claimed “notches” as shown below. The device of Nation is also capable of engaging a locknut.

6. Applicant's arguments filed March 9, 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 10 and 24-28 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Nation discloses the claimed “notches” as shown above. A recitation of the intended use of the claimed invention must result in a structural difference between the claimed invention and the prior art in order to patentably distinguish the claimed invention from the prior art. If the prior art structure is capable of performing the intended use, then it meets the claim. The device of Nation is also capable of engaging a locknut.

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

8. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Debra S. Meislin whose telephone number is 571 272-4487. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F, alt. Fridays off.
